Here to Help

Exam Access Arrangements

Our Learning Support Team are available, and can offer help with the following:

- Learning differences
- Additional help with your studies
- Dyslexia
- Dyspraxia
- Autistic Spectrum or Asperger's
- Mental health
- Physical disabilities
- Sight or hearing impairments
- Medical condition
- Exam Access Arrangements (EAA)
- Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP)
- Other learning needs

Please bring in any documents and evidence such as your Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP) or diagnostic assessment reports.

Each academic year you will need to tell your tutor before October if you need arrangements such as extra time, a reader or scribe (or any other arrangement).

Please bring in any evidence to Learning Support from your last school or college (for example a Form 8).

We can help with:

- Study skills
- Writing skills
- Reading skills
- Research
- Note-taking
- Maths
- Organisation and time management
- Revision and exam techniques
- Exam Access Arrangements
- IT and Assistive Technology
- Specialist dyslexia tuition
- Specialist 1-1 learning support
- Emotional Literacy support
- In-class support

As a team of professionally trained staff, we help many of our students to gain the qualifications and skills they need to fulfil their ambitions.
